TUESDAY, NOV. 2, 1875.

NEWS OF THE MORNING.

The National Gold Bank and Trust Company, of San Francisco, suspended yesterday. An early resumption is promised.

The woolen mills of A. A. Anderson, at Cincinnati, were burned yesterday. Loss $10,000. Cincinnati reports say the city is filled with burglars, who are actively at work.

A Mrs. Ferguson, of Cincinnati, has recovered ten thousand dollars damages from a saloon keeper for selling liquor to her husband.

A violent storm prevailed in the vicinity of Newark, N. J., during Saturday night and Sunday, doing much damage to property.

Considerable snow fell at Concord, N. J., on Sunday night.

Gold opened in New York yesterday at 116 1/2 and closed at 116.

Lepage, the man indicted for the murder of Miss Josie Longmaid near Concord, N. H., has been identified as the person seen in the bushes near the road over which the girl passed.

Last Friday night a train jumped the track near Marshalltown, Iowa, and severely injured fifteen persons.

The Detroit Post, Chandler's organ, denies that there is or has been any feeling against him in the Cabinet.

The funeral services of Mayor Otis took place in San Francisco yesterday from Dr. Stebbins' church.

The King of Greece decorated all the members of the Prince of Wales' party on the occasion of their recent brief visit at Athens, en route to India.

Twenty-six million francs were subscribed to the inundation fund at Paris for the relief of the sufferers by the recent floods.

Since the beginning of the struggle between Bismarck and the Ultramontanes the priests have paid $6,000,000 in fines, and have undergone 50,000 francs of imprisonment.

Dr. Stewart's expedition to South Africa is exploring the Zambesi river fully. They have built a small steamer for that purpose.

Mrs. Black, the original of Byron's "Maid of Athens," died in Greece lately, aged 76.

The King and Queen of Denmark and the Princess Thyra will visit England shortly.

A London letter says complaints are rife in Berlin that there is no money to be lent; that bank notes are scarce, and that it is not only the duty but the interest of the Government to prevent a massacre of trades for want of currency.

It seems the Chinese war speck has not entirely disappeared and that England may yet avenge the death of her Consul.

The assessors returned 100,000 orange trees in the two counties of Los Angeles and San Bernardino. The actual number is perhaps double this.

The weather prophets are still out of line, the gathering clouds disappearing without even a respectable sprinkle. It seems we are to be favored with a late and heavy rain to be followed by regular showers.

The Red Gum of Australia belongs to the same genus as the Blue Gum and grows nearly as fast. The wood is of a bright red color, takes varnish well, and is used in the manufacture of mantels and furniture. It should be introduced in Southern California.

An experienced Western hog raiser states that at present prices it would be more profitable to feed the product of our vineyards to the hogs. Grapes at $7.50 per ton can be profitably converted into bacon at 18 cents per pound.

The cholera has destroyed thousands of head of hogs in the Western States this Fall, and is still raging. Stock hogs are worth in Missouri eight cents per pound. It is evident, then, that the hog market will rule as high next year as it did this, and our farmers should turn their attention to hog raising.

It is surprising that the ozer willow has not been generally introduced in this section. It grows as rapidly and attains as great size as the ordinary variety now used here for fencing and wood, and is of considerable value for the purpose of making baskets and willow-ware of all kinds. Los Angeles should manufacture her own willow-ware.

The San Francisco papers are beginning to concede the attractions of the orange, olive and almond groves of Southern California for the immigrants from the bleak Northwest and frozen New England, but contend that the corn and pumpkin patches and wheat fields of central and Northern California are equally desirable. The next census will decide that question.

A ponderous volume might be compiled from editorials on the subject of fires and how to prevent them. We do not of course assume that the value of the tome would be in proportion to the bulk, but it would contain many ideas practical and impractical, sensible and senseless. Immediately after the Chicago fire every editor in the country gave the world his plans for preventing fires. A similar phenomena followed the blaze in Boston and now that the greater portion of Virginia City is reduced to ashes, we are having another series of articles on the same subject. Yet singular as it may appear with all this wisdom to act upon, the fire fiend is still unchained and continues to hurl his red brands with reckless hands among the habitations of men. Can it be possible that the editorial quill cannot lay this monster.

The Elections To-Day.

Eleven States of the Union hold elections to-day. In Pennsylvania, Wisconsin, New Jersey, New York, Missouri, Minnesota, Mississippi, Massachusetts, Maryland, Kansas and Virginia the people will express their will at the ballot box. These elections, while not clearly indicating the result in the next Presidential campaign, being influenced to a considerable extent by local issues, will in a measure indicate the strength of the two great parties that are struggling for supremacy. But a few weeks ago and it seemed scarcely possible for the Democracy to meet with defeat. There was a grand marshaling of the people of the country against Radicalism, but the stupidity of a few demagogues has changed the aspect of affairs, and the result may possibly be a complete rehabilitation of the Republican party. The abandonment of the true Democratic principles in Ohio, in the advocacy of paper money, lost that great State, and the currency issue in Pennsylvania is so nearly similar to that in the Buckeye State that a Democratic victory is by no means assured. The Ohio election will undoubtedly have a stimulating effect upon the Republicans everywhere, and the administration will spend immense sums of money in doubtful localities. The wing of either party which always seeks to be on the stronger side, and the impetuous and venal voter, may swing to the opposite side, and the country be as much astonished at the result as it was last year. The returns will therefore be watched with intense interest. In New York the Secretary of State will decide the party vote, the candidates being JOHN BIGLOW and FREDERICK SEWARD, the former a Democrat, the latter a Republican. There is little doubt about the election of BIGLOW. Massachusetts has to choose her Governor between GASTON, the present Democratic incumbent, and RICE, the Republican nominee. Mississippi will make a strong fight against AMES, and the Democrats expect to carry the election. Wisconsin and Kansas are set down as Republican, while Virginia, Maryland, Missouri and New Jersey will go Democratic.

The Spirit of Our People.

It seems that an evil spirit rules the destinies of our golden coast this year. Calamity after calamity, seems to rejoice and revel in the ruin and desolation, they can so suddenly bring to the doors of suffering thousands. The entire coast hardly recovers from a serious affliction, brought about by the suspension of the Bank of California, and the crippling of the moneyed interests of thousands, when the fire fiend envelopes, in one mighty sheet of flame, the source of much of our wealth and prosperity, inflicting an injury so dire and horrifying, that recovery would seem to be attended with great difficulty. Were it not for the irresistible enterprise, the unconquerable energy of our people, this last catastrophe would seem almost irreparable. But with their characteristic and open hearted generosity, all classes have sprung to the front extending a helping hand, to the distressed and suffering Virginians. The generosity of the people of this coast will live in history for all time to come. Scarcely had the wires flashed the news across the continent that Chicago was in ashes, when every city town and hamlet had its relief committee working for the sufferers. When Boston, fell a victim to the red-tongued flames, that destroyed her wealth and beauty, her call for aid met with a generous response in our midst. Again when the floods desolated Louisiana, aid was everywhere extended by our people. Last Winter Marysville was nearly swept out of existence and thousands of dollars, in pure glittering gold, and loads of necessities were immediately sent to the suffering people. And now Virginia City, has met with the fate of Chicago and Boston, and our people are everywhere contributing to her relief. The sad voice of want and misery never appeals to the self-made men of the Pacific slope in vain, and this our virtue should offset a multitude of vices, in estimating the general character of our people.

AMASA WALKER the eminent political economist is dead. He was born at North Brookfield Massachusetts in 1790. He was one of the first and most prominent actors in the Free Soil movement. Later in life he was a leader of the Anti Slavery organization. He held various State offices and served one term in the House of Representatives. Though mixing considerable in politics Mr. WALKER was more of a political economist than a politician. The greater portion of his life was spent in the study of financial questions and his knowledge on these issues enabled him to foretell the difficulties which would result from the issue of an irredeemable paper currency. Though his views were seldom adopted by politicians subsequent events almost always proved that he was correct and they wrong.

A REPRESENTATIVE of the HERALD on a trip through Los Angeles county conversed with several farmers who had made two crops of Irish potatoes on the same land this Summer. To effect this the first planting must be in February or March. These farmers had made one hundred sacks to the acre, and over, from each planting. Lands which will produce so bountifully are cheap at current rates.

Cause of Lamp Explosions.

Scarcely a day passes that we do not read accounts of fatal accidents by the explosion of lamps. It is said there could never be an explosion, if the wick fit the tube of the burner. All explosions are caused by putting a small wick in a large tube, the wick not fitting the tube leaves room on one or both sides for gas to escape. As soon as the burner becomes heated gas is formed rapidly, and passing up the tube on the side or edge of the wick, reaches the flame, and the flame at once passes down into the bowl of the lamp and ignites the body of gas. If the lamp is kept full or nearly full of oil, there could be no accumulation of gas and no explosion under any circumstances, but as people are not careful to keep lamps filled they should be careful to procure burners with long tubes, and get wicks to fill the tube, then they are safe.

New Odd Fellows' Lodge.

W. B. Lyon, Grand Secretary of the Grand Lodge of the State of California, I. O. O. F., on Saturday evening last instituted Santa Ana Lodge No. 236, at Santa Ana, in this county, with sixteen charter members. The following are the names of the charter members: G. Spurgeon, H. H. Harmon, M. S. Jones, W. S. Ritchey, John W. Swanson, J. H. Campbell, F. M. Smith, J. H. Messer, John E. Hodges, Henry W. Sharpe, Royal Freeman, E. M. Salter, A. D. Stine, A. F. Friesencker, C. R. Stine and G. W. Freeman. The names of the officers installed are as follows: W. S. Ritchey, N. G.; M. S. Jones, V. G.; G. Spurgeon, R. S.; G. Spurgeon, B. S.; G. W. Freeman, P. S.; J. H. Messer, Treas.; J. H. Campbell, W. G.; H. H. Harmon, F. M. Smith, J. G.; E. Hodges, G. G.; J. W. Swanson, R. S. N. G.; R. Freeman, L. S. N. G.; A. F. Friesencker, R. S. V. G.; Chas. Stone, L. S. V. G.; Amos Stine, R. S. S.; H. W. Sharpe, L. S. S. After the installation of the officers, N. O. Stebbins, W. B. Robinson and N. Donovan were initiated. Santa Ana Lodge starts out under very favorable auspices, and will no doubt become one of the most flourishing Lodges in Los Angeles valley.

The Wyoming Lottery Swindle.

A number of our citizens have received circulars from the Wyoming Lottery containing the following: DEAR SIR: Yours of the 1st received, and as you have remitted us $5 for six tickets, by remitting to us $5 more we will send you by return mail fourteen more tickets, by remitting $5 we will send you more tickets, leaving the balance of $5 due to be deducted from the prizes after the drawing, thus giving you the benefit of club rates. This is the lowest and best rates allowed to agents and clubs. This precious document is signed by J. M. Pattee, Laramie City, Wyoming, and purports to be from what is called the Wyoming Lottery. Of course the first line, "Yours of the 1st received," is a gag, the recipients of the circulars never having written or sent any money, and perhaps never heard of the concern. It is merely intended to get some money out of the unsuspecting and gullible, and is the same game that has been played by Pattee in St. Joseph, Mo., Omaha, Neb., and Leavenworth, Kan. Mr. Pattee has played his schemes in the Pattee House swindle, St. Joseph, Mo.; the Sisters' Hospital swindle, in Omaha, Neb.; and the Mercantile Library fraud at Leavenworth, Kansas. After the exposure of his Omaha swindle he found it convenient to go to Europe for a year, and only returned about a year ago. This Wyoming Lottery scheme is his first attempt since his exit from Omaha, and we warn all our readers against it. Any money paid to him is the same as stolen.

San Bernardino Items.

(From the Argus Oct. 30th.)

Yesterday seventeen bars of bullion were brought in from the Ivanpah mines, and will yield $17,000. Within the past three weeks McFarlane has shipped in from these mines more than forty-five thousand dollars' worth of bullion.

A short time ago Charles Austin started for Ivanpah with a six-horse team belonging to J. F. Miller. News was received yesterday that Mr. Austin had neglected to stop at Ivanpah and was on his way to Salt Lake, leaving Mr. Miller minus a new wagon, six horses and harness.

On a Michigan avenue car yesterday were mother and daughter—the mother an old settler and the daughter affected a good deal of style. The old lady suddenly began snuffing and sniffing and presently stuck her head out of the window and exclaimed: "Seems to me I smell apple sass burning!"

The daughter pulled her down and whispered in her ear, and the old lady yelled out: "And I say it is applesass! Don't 'sa-sa-sa' spell sass? If it don't then I'll take a back seat and you may run the house!"

The girl hadn't anything more to say.

I'll be a good man and give up cards and smoking and chewing and drinking, and give you a diamond engagement ring, said the lover. "Oh, Edward, you—you are so good," and she leaned her frizzes on his shoulder. And there they sat and sat until the soft hours of night, that dusky nurse of the world, had folded them from sight, pondering, planning, thinking, she of the diamond ring, and he of how on earth he was to get it.

To show yourself irresolute is to endow your enemy with confidence. We take courage in beholding a feebleness which is greater than our own.

For many reasons it is better to burn letters of affection than to hoard them in this most uncertain world.

Manners may exist without morals, but morals should never be without manners.

The religion that is always searching for "a hope" is a hopeless religion.

Better be honorable and be despised than to be despicable and be honored.

EASTERN NEWS.

Attempt to Set Aside a Land Grant.

WASHINGTON, October 30th.—A few days ago there was quietly filed with the Attorney-General petitions signed by Alfred A. Green and the attorneys of the Southern Pacific Railroad Company of California, asking that proceedings be instituted on the ground of fraud, to set aside the patent land claim for the Rancho Lomas de Santiago, comprising 47,328 acres in Los Angeles county, confirmed by the District Court in December, 1856, which judgment was rendered final in January, 1858, by the dismissal of the appeal to the United States Supreme Court. The matter was referred to the Interior Department for a report, whereupon the Commissioner of the General Land Office prepared, for the Secretary of the Interior, a statement of facts shown by his records, accompanied by the recommendation. This statement has been transmitted to the Attorney-General by Secretary Cowan with the remark that he does not feel at liberty to make any recommendation as to the propriety of acceding to the request of the petitioners, but leaves the matter to the judgment of the Attorney-General. The latter declines to make public the specific allegations of the petition at present, but intimates that he will return the papers to the Interior Department and give the case consideration until a recommendation one way or the other is reached. Harvey Brown is here on this business. Great pains have been taken to keep the matter secret.

Storms on the Atlantic Coast.

Boston, November 1st.—A severe Easterly rain storm visited this city yesterday and continued nearly all night, with high winds after midnight. The sea was very high in the harbor, interfering with the ferry boats, most of which entirely suspended their trips after midnight. No damage to vessels in the harbor has been reported. The storm was severely felt along the coast to Rockland, Maine. At Saco the gale is reported as having been very heavy. At midnight one of the pinnacles on St. Joseph's French Catholic Church was blown down. The water was very high, and to-day several wharfs in the city were submerged.

San Francisco News.

SAN FRANCISCO, November 1st.—Late bullion shipments embrace $54,000 from the Leopold mine on the 29th ult.; $7,100 from the Northern Belle mine on the 28th; $11,200 from the Ophir mine on the 29th, and $210,282 from the Consolidated Virginia mine on the 28th and 30th. This makes the total for the month over $1,100,000. The work of raising ore from the mine has been resumed. The Chollar Potosi mine produced 325 tons of ore last week, averaging $29.50 per ton.

The National Gold Bank and Trust Company failed to open its doors at the hour designated by Gen. Thompson, Cashier, in his speech on Saturday afternoon as the one to be observed in future, and suspended payment. Depositors who were turned away from the counters at 4 o'clock on Saturday with their checks unpaid, returned to the attack this morning, together with many others who had learned of the suspension at too late an hour to draw on Saturday, making a formidable procession, but the doors remained closed and they had to return without the promised coin.

The Bank gives promise of an early resumption. Their suspension has caused no excitement whatever.

YOUNG MEN

Who may be suffering from the effects of youthful follies or indiscretion, will do well to avail themselves of this, the greatest boon ever laid at the altar of suffering humanity. DR. SPINNEY will guarantee to forfeit $500 for every case of seminal weakness, or private disease of any kind or character, which he undertakes and fails to cure. He will, therefore, say to the unfortunate sufferer who may read this notice that you are treading upon dangerous ground when you longer delay in seeking the proper remedy for your complaint. You may be in the first stage of the disease, or you may be in the last, if you are hesitating upon the last, and are suffering some or all of its ill effects, remember that if you persist in procrastination the time must come when the most skillful physician can render you no assistance; when the door of hope will be closed against you; when no angel of mercy can bring you relief. In no case has the Doctor failed of success. Then let not despair work upon your imagination, but avail yourself of the beneficial results of his treatment before your case is beyond the reach of medical skill, or before grim death hurries you to a premature grave. Full course of treatment $25. Send money by Post Office Order or Express, with full description of case. Call or address, DR. A. E. SPINNEY, sold away No. 11 Kearny st., S. F.
